

The Ultimate Fleet Management Training Opportunity is on the Horizon

We invite you to the 2010 AssetWorks Users Conference

april 11-15, 2010 ☀️ phoenix, arizona

Join us for five days of product education, hands-on training and working side-by-side with your fleet peers and AssetWorks staff at the AssetWorks Users Conference.

In a constantly shifting economic climate, it is more important than ever to keep your competitive edge. The AssetWorks Users Conference, back for the 24th year, provides you with the opportunity to sharpen your skills, expand your knowledge and blaze new trails for your organization.

You'll receive continuing education through four days of seminars, roundtable meetings and hands-on sessions. Learn alongside your fleet peers in classes and discussions lead by the AssetWorks team.

The AssetWorks Users Conference draws hundreds of fleet professionals from around the country, providing you with a rare networking opportunity. Share ideas and brainstorm solutions with people who face similar challenges as you. In addition, you'll also be able to speak directly with AssetWorks' key development, professional services, support and product management staff.

If you are looking for ways to enhance your fleet maintenance practices, the AssetWorks Users Conference provides professional opportunities to meet with AssetWorks partner companies that offer products and services to help you with the issues you face on a daily basis.
